

THE MASTER OF EMOTIONS

KEYNOTE INTRODUCTION

Our next session is on Emotional Intelligence.

In a world of technology and artificial intelligence, we need to upgrade our human connection. Businesses need employees that feel engaged and connected to their leaders and we need leaders that know how to make that happen.

We are very happy to have with us an EQ expert and interactive keynote speaker. He works with Fortune 500 companies all around the world and today he will share with you the value of Emotional Intelligence and how you can Master Emotions to boost results.

Our next speaker is not only an expert, he is also a performer! He was a rock band lead singer for 18 years and he is ready to rock the room!

Let's give a warm welcome to...

Ricardo Cabete!

THE ENGAGEMENT SHERLOCK HOLMES

KEYNOTE INTRODUCTION

Our next session is on Employee Engagement.

According to GALLUP, 64% of employees are not engaged. Businesses and workers suffer and our next speaker calls this the “Crime of Disengagement”.

What you will experience in a few seconds is more than a keynote, it’s a crime investigation where you will search for clues that will reveal what you really need to motivate and engage every single person in your team and organization.

We are very happy to have with us an emotional intelligence expert and interactive keynote speaker. He works with Fortune 500 companies all around the world and today he will share with you the main drivers of employee engagement.

Our next speaker is not only an expert, he is also a performer! He was a rock band lead singer for 18 years and he is ready to rock the room!
