

LONG BIO (253 WORDS)

Ricardo Cabete is an emotional intelligence expert, interactive keynote speaker and executive coach who helps Fortune 500 companies, like Novartis, PwC and HSBC, to increase employee engagement.

In a world of technology and artificial intelligence, Ricardo helps corporate leaders communicate with their teams in a way that spark emotional connection. The main outcome is higher employee engagement that boost business results like staff retention, productivity and profitability.

He speaks at global corporate events and international conferences for several industries, including HR, Insurance and Banking. Ricardo loves to create Keynotes and Masterclasses that are impactful for the audience and at the same time create high ROI results for his clients.

His signature keynotes, The Master of Emotions and The Engagement Sherlock Holmes, are best-sellers around the world, driving the audience into an interactive, insightful and powerful experience.

Ricardo is also a rock band lead singer! He performed at international rock festivals with bands like The Black Eyed Peas, The Prodigy or Iggy Pop.

Ricardo brings his 18 years of rock band lead singing experience to his engaging keynotes, helping your audience to become high performing leaders and teams. He's not only an expert, he's also a performer!

In 2017 he was awarded as the European Champion of Public Speaking by Toastmasters International, placing in the top 30 speakers in the world in a contest with more than 30.000 speakers globally.

Ricardo speaks with Emotion and always has a surprise impact element in his talks that make them memorable.

Get ready to feel engaged!