

SHORT BIO (89 Words)

Ricardo Cabete is an emotional intelligence expert and interactive keynote speaker who helps Fortune 500 companies, like Novartis, PwC and HSBC, to increase employee engagement.

He achieves this by helping corporate leaders communicate with their teams in a way that spark emotional connection. The main outcome is higher employee engagement that boost business results like staff retention, productivity and profitability.

Ricardo brings his 18 years of rock band lead singing experience to his engaging keynotes, helping your audience to become Masters of Emotions and high performing leaders and teams.